EXPAND YOUR MIND

We are the industry leader in portable instant advertising. Our pioneering spirit means we are continually developing new concepts and value engineering for lighter, stronger materials and components. We've never been limited by geography or climate. It's our job to make sure that any brand, regardless of size or location, gets seen in the right place at the right time. Each product has been tested under the most rigorous conditions and as a testament to their durability our flying banners have weathered the fury of hurricanes Isabella and Katrina as well as the freezing temperatures of the Arctic. In 2005, we dispatched a consignment of flying banners to the North Pole. While each banner was uniquely designed to combat the wind and the fierce cold, even we couldn't predict the destructive effects of the razor-sharp claws of a curious polar bear on one unsuspecting flying banner!
